

3 New Things I Learned During the Lockdown - by Matti Raven (aged 5)

Home Learning TV was fun because I got to learn laying down in my pyjamas on the sofa while Mum was teaching her students on her computer.

Building a hut out of driftwood with my Mum and Yuko (my 16 year old homestay sister) was a great way to make an afternoon go really fast.

Rosemary is the herb we use for Remembrance. I learned how to make it into a wreath for ANZAC Day. It smelled yummy!
