

Date: 19 May 2020

My mother celebrated her birthday during the lockdown. I couldn't go out and buy her a gift, so I drew the beautiful view in front of our house down and gave it to her. This painting was not only a gift but also a record.

I also do some other paintings when I was free. It is relaxing for me.

Upload your story

QQ20200518183924.jpg